"Did You Know"

"America celebrates":

New York City holds the largest Saint Patrick's Day parade in the world, which also happens to be the oldest non-military parade in the world. With over 150,000 participants spread over a mile-and-a-half route along Fifth Avenue in Manhattan, the parade typically lasts five hours and attracts at least a million spectators -

New Orleans Saint Patrick's Day celebration dates back to 1809—not surprising since the city was the largest port of entry for Irish immigrants in the South. There are several neighborhood-based parades, and many reuse floats from Mardi Gras. The special twist is that instead of the usual Mardi Gras "throws" of trinkets and beads, Saint Patrick's Day "throws" feature onions, carrots, cabbages, potatoes, and other foods that can be used to make Irish stew" Have YOU ever been to a St. Patrick's Day parade?

Neil Murray ~ Our Bahama Bay Club IT Guy~

"You may recognize this "on demand" gentleman, Mr. Neil Murray, our Director of IT (Internet Technologies). He is available to assist you with any technical or technological issues you may have. Be it computers, TV's, internet, cell phones - he's your man. You may be surprised to know that he is a professional archeologist and worked in the field for 20 years before joining BBC. That work took him to Mexico, Belize, and Guatemala among other exotic locales. He is also a Hamm radio enthusiast, saying it is the "Internet before there was the Internet"! Overall, Neil is your go-to guy for all things electronic. See the front desk if you have any needs of that capacity - he'll get with you as soon as he can!"
